FAQs

Find the answers to our most commonly asked questions about the nature of our cover and how we protect members globally.

Which department should I contact regarding a group leaver quotation?

Whether the query is from a direct client or comes from a broker - the correct department to contact regarding group leaver quotations is the individual sales team. The team can be reached via email, individual.sales@allianzworldwidecare.com or by phone: 01 5148480

Who is eligible for a group leaver quotation?

Any policyholder who has been insured with us on a corporate plan for over 1 year continuously is entitled to a group leaver quotation. Together with the policyholder, we are also happy to quote for dependents who were covered on the group scheme.

We are also happy to offer an Individual policy in the case of an over-age dependent who is being removed from the group scheme having reached the maximum age for child cover under group terms.

Is there a deadline to offer Group Leaver terms?

Yes, the offer must be accepted within 30 days of the group policy end date. If the member applies outside of this window, they will be offered a new individual policy - full medical underwriting and waiting periods will apply in this instance.

Will waiting periods apply on benefits?

No waiting periods apply on individual group leaver policy benefits.

Is cover the exact same as the corporate scheme?

Cover will be offered from our range of Individual plans. While it won't be the exact same as a tailored, corporate scheme - we can offer the closest matched plans or identify a different level of cover which might be more suitable for the client's needs.

What information do you need to provide an individual quote?

To produce group leaver terms, we would require:

- Current policy number
- Rough guide to end date of group policy
- Primary country of residence for forthcoming policy year

Please forward any queries for specific members or groups to individual.sales@allianzworldwidecare.com, we will be happy to assist.
